* Comment. The shipments dispatched to West Mitovsk, Stettin and Zhabinka were deliveries by Soviet Zone hydrogenation plants to the U.S.S.R. Zhabinka, which has frequently been reported as a receiving station for fuel shipments, is on the West Mitovsk-Saranovic railroad line. Fuel shipments to Stettin are transhipped there to ships. The fuel shipments to Wroclaw were deliveries by Soviet Zone hydrogenation plants to Poland. The crude oil shipments entering the Soviet Zone came from Bistritz-Gorf in Austria. A fuel depot of the GDR is located in Velten.
